

It's Never too Early to Convert a "To Do" List into a "Done" List

Just one final reminder before the end of the calendar year that the time to register for the 76th Annual Conference of the Wisconsin Association for Career and Technical Education ("Exploring New Horizons") is right now while early bird registration rates are still in effect.

The conference has "something for everyone" this year regardless of where you fit into the grand scheme of career and technical education. There are five different "threads" of breakout sessions covering everything from legislative & economic issues to CTE pathways & partnerships to advice for life's transitions as well as best practices in CTE instruction, CTE administration, and information technology. A flyer with complete information concerning the conference and all of the breakout sessions can be found at the WACTE Website (www.wacteonline.org).

Don't wait and have "procrastinator's remorse" later in 2012. Lock in that early bird rate right now.

Again, best wishes for a most pleasant holiday season... and we look forward to seeing you in Appleton in April for WACTE's 76th annual conference.

John Frank, President
Wisconsin Association for Career & Technical Education
